Kevin Gaffney curated by Kathleen Soriano

Private View: 24th November 2017, 6-9pm

25th November – 22nd December 2017

In conversation: 1st December 6-9pm

Opening 24th November, Block 336 will present Unseen By My Open Eyes, the first solo exhibition of Irish artist Kevin Gaffney's work in the UK.

A natural storyteller with a surrealistic bent, Gaffney considers issues of sexual and national identities through 4 seductive films that explore the construction, projection and manipulation of subjectivity.

A monograph on the artists work published by Black Dog will accompany the exhibition.

Kathleen Soriano is an independent curator and Chair of the Liverpool Biennial, formerly Director of Exhibitions at the Royal Academy of Arts, and Director of Compton Verney Art Gallery.

In addition to Arts Council England support, this exhibition is also supported by The Elephant Trust, The Arts Council of Ireland, Culture Ireland and Guinness.
