

WORLD RECEIVERS

Curated by Tiffany Zabludowicz

21 MARCH – 7 JULY 2019

Kevin Beasley, Hayden Dunham, Lizzie Fitch, Lizzie Fitch/Ryan Trecartin, Aaron Fowler, Isa Genzken, Athena Papadopoulos, Signe Pierce, Puppies Puppies, Cindy Sherman, Anj Smith, Jasper Spicero, Ryan Trecartin, Anna Uddenberg, Chloe Wise and Issy Wood.

World Receivers focuses on the overlaps of identity, materiality and politics. The exhibition continues the Zabludowicz Collection's commitment to promoting and contextualizing new perspectives in contemporary art and in particular, an engagement with issues of individuality.

Featuring two foundational artists: Cindy Sherman and Isa Genzken, alongside 13 younger voices, the exhibition exposes personal, creative and social influences across generations. Many works are deeply invested with subjective visual languages that mark an overt return to the individual in recent art practice. World Receivers is curated by Tiffany Zabludowicz and the artworks have been selected from the Collection in relation to her programme of residencies and exhibitions in New York at Times Square Space.

Tiffany Zabludowicz on the exhibition: "By purposefully constructing identities and archetypes, the artists in the exhibition explore what defines a person in today's world when the political environment puts the freedom to define selfhood at stake. Identity is fluid and intricate and yet we strive to frame and represent an idea of ourselves. The exhibition proposes veracity as emotional, physical and sensory, and that these artists are exposing the traps, stereotypes and perpetuated myths that hold us together, as well as force us apart."

The exhibition will feature performances by Signe Pierce and Puppies Puppies and two newly commissioned installations by Pierce and Issy Wood. Pierce will create portals throughout the building, combining materials that reflect and transport the viewer to altered states. Wood will create a new environment for her paintings; working in a variety of scales her works cast a surreal veneer over all that they depict. All other works are drawn from the Zabludowicz Collection with the majority produced in the last five years.

Many of these artists have evolving practices, working simultaneously across a variety of labour-intensive media; including painting, sculpture, text, sound, photography, film, and performance. The exhibition will be a panoply of perspectives in conversation. Sound will delineate distinct atmospheres as soundtracks selected by the artists will interrupt or encourage the viewers' experience of the exhibited works. A publication featuring artists' contributions will be published during the exhibition.
