THE RITE OF SUMMER

24 August — 21 September 2021

The Rite of Summer is a group exhibition in a two-bedroom flat in Bermondsey, London where the hallway, living room, toilet, bathroom, kitchen and balcony – the everyday life – are intertwined with visions of a strange period, the new liveable. Five artists rant against alienation and a shit summer that never happened, yet lasted over twelve months and leaked from one year to another creating a warped distorted view of what used to be considered a seasonal recurring event.
