The Gerald Moore Gallery is pleased to present Nice to see you!, our annual open call exhibition, this year's theme is portraiture in the form of painting or painted artwork.

The private view will be on Thursday 6th March from 6 to 8pm.

Nice to see you! celebrates the very best in contemporary portraiture from emerging, mid-career and artists new to painting.

A call out for artworks was announced at the end of January 2025 to artists working in London and the South East. The final artworks in the exhibition were then selected by a panel of 23 young people aged 11-18 from Eltham College who chose artworks, according to whether the artworks moved them and based on based on creativity, originality, and technique.

As an extension of the exhibition, we will also be showcasing a selection of portraits painted by the late Dr Gerald Moore, founder of our gallery in our Paul Henderson space during the run of Nice to see you! Moore's portraits explored portraiture through religious, spiritual and existential themes.

Artists include:

Rose Antony, Natalia Baran, Mengwei Chen, Andrew Clement-Hammond, Lucy Coomes, Rodrigue Dakouri, Dan Draws, Dionne Elizabeth, Toby Geden, Sheri Gee, Meg Griffiths, Hai Hoang, Eve Holcombe, Michalis Karaiskos, Nellie Katchinska, Prabhleen Kaur, Minjoo Kim, Svetlana Kornilova, Edward at Last, Dominic Longworth, Emily McCaul, Sasha Palfreyman, Sean Bw Parker, Marta Paula, Imogen Perkin, , Emma Sefton Smith, Harry Speirs, Jasper Stinchcombe, Jacqueline Synnott, Irini Tataki, Shelly Wain, Anya Wang, Tisna Westerhof, Tong Wu, Dan Zhang and many more.

Dr. Gerald Moore (1926 - 2018) was a prolific artist who worked across the mediums of sculpture, painting and drawing. His career as an artist evolved over several decades. Since 1950, he exhibited his work widely, including at Whitechapel Gallery (1950), the Scottish National Gallery (1959), at Heal's Gallery with David Hockney (1961), Bath Festival (1982) and Cooperative K (Germany, 1994). The largest single collection of his work is now housed within the walls of Gerald Moore Gallery.

Alongside his work as an artist, Moore published several written works. This includes an anthology of poems entitled The Singing Dust (1976), children's book The Cuckoo Who Flew Backwards (1977) and in 1982 he published his autobiography, Treading in Treacle.

The exhibition is open to the public on Saturdays from 10am to 4pm and by appointment.

To make an appointment, please email info@geraldmooregallery.org or call 02088570448.

The Gerald Moore Gallery is a centre for modern and contemporary art with learning at its heart. Opened in April 2012, in Mottingham, the gallery is uniquely set within the grounds of Eltham College and is a valuable resource for the students and the local community. The gallery has gained momentum hosting some exciting exhibitions including works by Matisse, Louise Bourgeois, and Cornelia Parker, whilst supporting emerging local artists. In unison with the exhibitions, the gallery's outreach programme works with local community groups, teachers, and schools, creating lasting relationships with our locality. Gerald Moore Gallery was made possible with the foresight and generosity of Old Elthamian, Dr Gerald Moore, many of whose works are archived at the gallery and who has a permanent exhibition on display.
